The following represents an agreement between the San Diego County Public Law Library, referred to hereafter as "library" and the government agency named above:

We hereby apply for membership as a government office borrower at the San Diego County Public Law Library. We have read and agree to abide by the rules of the library. The undersigned agrees that utilization of library materials is solely for activities related to the mission of the organizational entities and that individuals checking out materials are engaged in activities directly pertaining to the function of the organization.

We agree to send the library a current list of our borrowers at least once a year. We understand library cards are property of the library and we will return these whenever we request the deletion of a former employee. We will update the library if our address or telephone number changes. We will be responsible for any lost or damaged library materials. We understand we are responsible for paying for overdue book fines, library cards or other library charges incurred by agency members utilizing library materials with an authorized borrower's card. The library may suspend at any time deemed necessary. Library will close the account if the office fails to pay overdue book fines, library card charges and other fees within a six month period.
